

Greater Los Angeles Area Council BSA

Intro to Outdoor Leader Skills

Webelos Adults Welcome

April 22-23, 2017

What we will cover: Patrol Method, Campsite Selection; Leave no Trace; Ropes: Whipping, Tying, & Lashing; Wood Tools: Knife, Camp Saw, & Ax; Fire Preparation & Building; Cooking; Scout First Aid Requirements and how to get trained; Plant & Animal Identification; Campfire Program planning; Find Your Way: Map & compass; Packing & Hiking Techniques; Interfaith worship!

Location: Firestone Scout Reservation

Time: Arrival: 7:00 am, Saturday, April 22nd

Depart: By 12:00 pm, Sunday, April 23rd

Cost: $20.00 (Covers Materials, Cooking class Lunch and Camp Fees)

All registrations must be done online at: WWW.GLAAC/training.org. Click on the "sign up for 2017 Training here" Find this course and click on register. Registration deadline is April 15, 2017. No walk ins.

For Additional Information, Contact - Pacifica District Boy Scout Leader Training - reeley@troop849.org

or

Joanne Miller 626-351-8815 ext 264 Joanne.Miller@Scouting.org

PLEASE WEAR YOUR ACTIVITY UNIFORM!

Lunch on Saturday will be provided from cooking demonstration

In order to be considered "position trained" all Scoutmasters, Assistant Scoutmasters must have current Youth Protection Training, SM/ASM Specific Training and Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills. Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills is also required for Coaches, Asst. Coaches as well as Advisors/Associate Advisors for crews with an outdoor program.